NEW YORK, June 19 .- The Herald's Rich mond correspondent says: A conference took place in that city on Thursday last between Gov. Pierpont and the members of the Virginia Legislature, the subject under consideration being a proposition to extend the right of suffrage beyond | male constitution is subject. It moderates obstructions, tion, by which all who have taken part in the rebellion are excluded from the privilege of Islature.

If Virginia is not represented in the next ses sion of Congressit will not be because Virginians willing to fill seats in that body cannot be found; candidates for these positions are coming to light rapidly, including some gentlemen who a short time ago would have considered themselves in sulted by being called citizens of the United States. It is even said that the late rebel Governor, Extra Billy Smith, proposes to run for election, if he can first get President Johnson to

He has made over a million of dollars out of the war, which is sately invested, and he now receives ab solution and protection for his ill-gotten gains His application was strongly endorsed by George D Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, and it is also stated in his behalf that he was very kind to our Andersonville prisoners. A great many instances of hospitality to these patriots are now coming to light which, strange to say, were never heard of before

Horrible Outrage and Murder. Boston, June 19 - A most horrible case of outrage and murder came to light vesterday in a place called Roxbury Wood, Roxbury. The bodies of Isabella Jovce, aged tourteen and her brother, aged twelve years, were found murdered, the little girl having first been fleudishly out raged and a double murder probably committed to hide the disholical crime The parents reside in the Eleventh Ward of this city and are highly respectable The little victims were engaged in gathering wild flowers in the woods and making wreaths of evergreens and flowers, as the wilted fruits of their labor laid scattered about where their bodies were found The chil have been missed since last Monday.

Savantish, United Sates Marshall The Pardoning Power. NEW YORK, June 19 - There is a good prospect that the pardoning carnival is about over. The scores of eminent statesmen, lawsers, politi cians who have thronged the White House and secured the pardon of culprits for abundant fees, are likely to find their business curtailed un account of its past success.

A strong pressure was brought to bear upon the President for the pardon of Wilmer, who was sentenced to two years imprisonment and a fine of $10,000, but he utterly retused to intertere with the finding of the Court On mother oc-Nos. 13 and 16 Rast Peri street, in the rear of Casion he is said to have remarked that there had tet su got to be a limit to the Executive interference | my5-daws-

LOUISVILLE, June 3d, 1863. We, the undersigned, have seen the good effects of Dr. Jons Bull's Capacs Sittes in case of general decility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly would this be the case, especially these who are exposed to the miasmatic influences in the Southern climate.
